Dreams

Presented to The Stanly County Library
by Senior Class of Norwood High School
May 23, 1952.

We are the Dreamers...

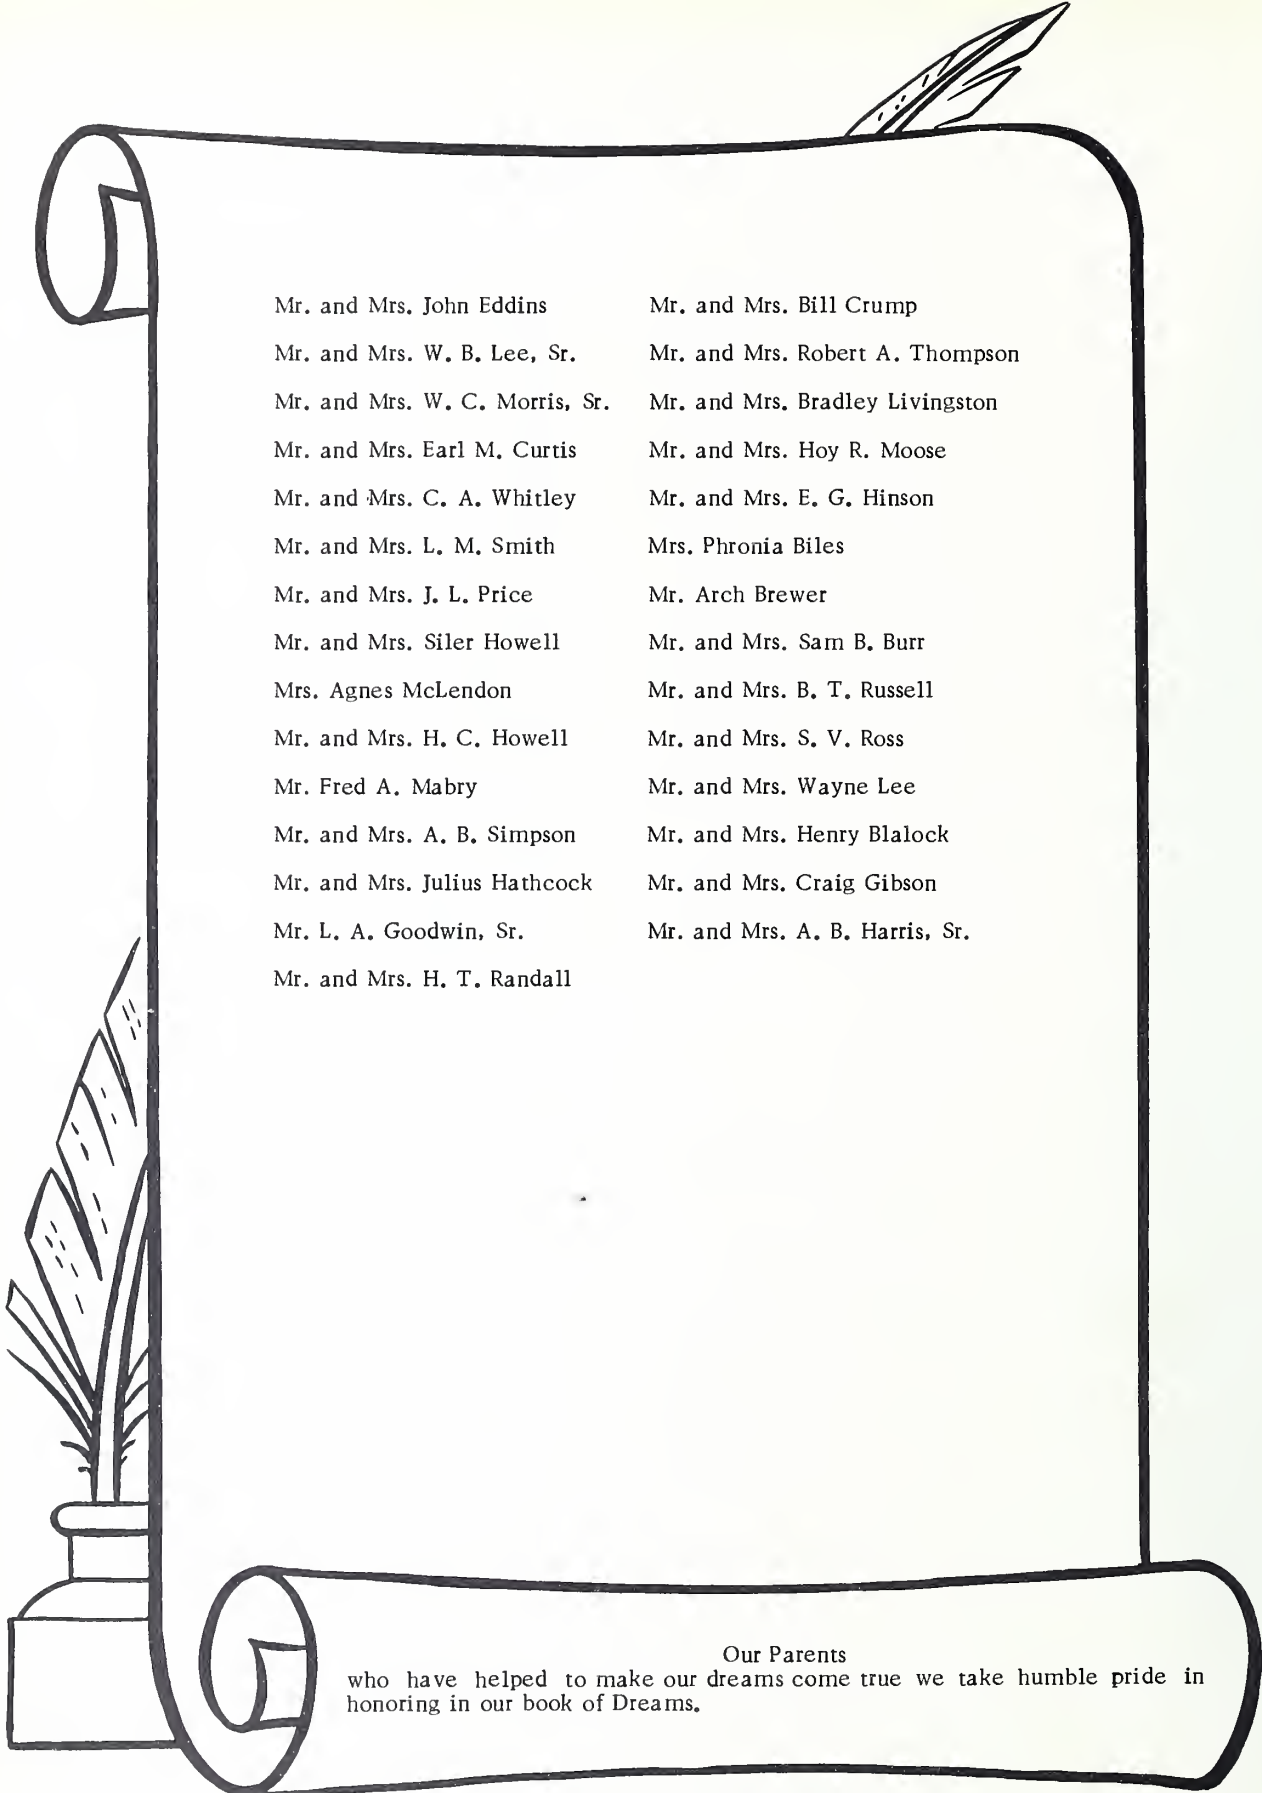

DREAMS . . .

For Dreams and ambitions are quite the same,
And empires rise at their magic name:
There is never a blessing we have today,
But somebody's dreaming has paved the way.
Why! Out on the edges of endless space
God dreamed a dream for the human race.

Senior Class Song

Tune: It Is No Secret
By: Naomi Whitley

On day by day along our way,
We're proud to bear the name.
We've made the grade at last.
Here we've won our fame.
We've done our best and stood the test
"We're Seniors," we exclaim.
We were not discouraged
We leave to you the rest.

We classmates true of '52,
United here we stand
To reach the goal's our aim,
We'll need a helping hand,
Our colors White and lovely Blue
The Rose we have proclaimed,
"Courage leads to Honor",
Excepted o'er the land.

Chorus:
Our work has proven just what we do,
Our dispositions we claim them too.
We hope we'll leave you,
Examples true,
Do unto others, as you'd have them do.

Class History - Dreams of the Past

We were an excited group of mischievous six-year olds, who entered Norwood school on a lovely August day in 1940. How proud we were when we learned to write our names and say the A B C's under the careful guidance of Mrs. Mary Lumsden and Miss Pearl Smith. We were really getting to be big boys and girls as we sailed along grade by grade, learning the three "R's" and participating in chapel programs, operettas, popularity contests, toy bands, and May Day exercises.

Having completed four years of primary school life, we were promoted to the grammar grades where we rapidly made progress in making new acquaintances as we strived to attain understanding in history, spelling, health, and arithmetic. Each of us wishing and longing for the day when we would be High School students, learned our lessons which took on a more likeable appearance. September 13, 1948-39 green Freshmen entered high school with Mr. J. M. Day as our homeroom teacher.

August 25, 1949- We sophisticated Sophs returned to school for another year. We were 35 in number, and Mrs. Robert Finley was our homeroom teacher.

August 28, 1950- As 34 Juniors, we assembled in our homeroom with Miss Bess Ivey as our sponsor.

November 30, 1950-O happy day! Our class rings arrived!

March 23, 1951- Junior-Senior Banquet held in old gymnasium, theme: "Apple Blossom Time". Pansy Lee was chosen Apple Blossom Queen.

April 6, 1951- Junior Square Dance and party in old gymnasium.

May 9, 1951- Seniors gave us an ice cream party in the home of Mary Ellen Skidmore. We enjoyed a hayride afterwards.

September 3, 1951- Gladly, but sadly, we, as a class of 29-7 boys and 22 girls gathered in the Senior classroom to begin our last year of high school days. We were delighted to learn that Mrs. A. D. McNeill would again be the Senior sponsor.

September 7, 1951- Class officers elected.

September 13, 1951- We chose gradeparents, mascots, and Junior Marshals.

September 14, 1951- Annual and Rambler staffs were chosen.

September 18, 1951- The photographers from Delmar studios made individual pictures of students mascots, gradeparents, and faculty.

September 25, 1951- Orders for personal cards and caps and gowns were placed.

September 28, 1951- The Seniors enjoyed a weinner roast at Morrow Mt.

October 17, 1951- The Seniors, mascots, and their sponsor journeyed to Ross Studio in Albermarle to have their pictures made in caps and gowns.

October 26, 1951- The school sponsored a Halloween Carnival. Don Brewer was crowned King.

November 6, 1951- Superlatives were chosen.

November 16,17, 1951- Seniors presented four one-act plays, "High Jinks at Hollister Hall", "Wilbur Takes His Medicine", "Whodunit", and "Friday Afternoon at a Village School" in the school auditorium.

November 20, 1951- Our gradeparents entertained us at the V.F.W. Hut, which was beautifully decorated.

November 30, 1951- The Seniors elected Annie Ruth Smith as a candidate for "Miss Merry Christmas." We also attended College Day at Albermarle High School.

December 4 and 5, 1951- Juniors, Seniors, and chaperones attended the "Ice Capades" at the William Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh.

December 20, 1951- Senior Christmas party at the Collins & Aikman auditorium.

December 21, 1951-January 2, 1952- Christmas holidays.

January 15-17, 1952- Mid-term exams.

"A Dream of the Future"

"Hey, Nomi, wake up! Gee whiz, you know we have to write our class prophecy before Friday, and here you are sleeping."

"Oh hi, Ann! Guess what? I've just had the most wonderful dream! I was sitting here thinking and dreading writing the prophecy because it's so hard to do, and fell asleep. You know what? I guess I had just thought about it so much that I dreamed about it. I'll try to see if I can remember it all. Ann, take this down, will you?"

"You bet, Nomi!"

"I'll tell my dream just as if it were happening about ten years in the future:

"There was a great crowd gathered out-side Madison Square Garden. Two great undefeated basketball teams were playing. Who should be the captains of the winning teams but Louise McLendon and Barry Russell, who were voted best Athletes by our classmates of '52.

"Nearly all our classmates were out to see Barry and Louise. There was Sammy Morris, who was coach at U.N.C. He had seated beside him Peggy Price and Patsy Ross Lee, who were both stenographers in Washington. Molly Gibson and Jereline Biles came walking in, obviously taking a vacation from all their housework. And guess who I saw yelling for the teams? None other than Alice Thompson and Bettie Rose Randall, two teachers at the University of Virginia. Don Brewer was there in his army uniform, surrounded by girls, as usual. Bud Eddins, a lawyer, came in with a gang of classmates in his old Ford. There was June Curtis, who was teaching music in Hollywood; Pansy Lee, voted Miss Popularity at U.N.C.; Betty Harris, a dress designer for M.G.M. Studio; Betty Crump, a doctor in Winston-Salem; and Peggy Mabry, dressed fit to kill in a mink outfit from her original shoppe.

"Next, I saw Eugene Blalock, who was then overseer at C. & A., and Walt just back from his own television program. Peggye Talent supplied music for his comical programs, making a grand entrance was Ann Smith, who had made outstanding success as a model in New York. Coming along beside her was Olivene Howell, who was looking for a nice investment for all the money she was making on her ranch. Oh yes, Betty Howell was there, too. I guess she was taking time off from her fashionable beauty salon. The honored guest was Gene Hinson, Mayor of New York City. Next, Eunice Simpson and Buna Hathcock came in; they were both nurses at Duke Hospital. Lovell Moose was there celebrating her tenth wedding anniversary. Everyone was overjoyed to see Evelyn Livingston, who has just come back from teaching in Africa. That concludes my dream."

"Well, Nomi, that takes care of everyone but you. Let me prophesy for you. I prophesy that you have made your debut at the Metropolitan Opera and were a great success."

CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope,
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America,
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.

"The homes of tomorrow are in the hands of the youth of today."

OFFICERS: President, Annie Ruth Smith; Vice President, Naomi Whitley; Secretary-treasurer, Nancy Honeycutt; Reporter, Barbara Hinson

Creed

"I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds -- achievements won by the present and past generations of farmers; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come up to us from the struggles of former years.

"I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so -- for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me."
